ARBITRATION/LABOR RELATIONS EXPERIENCE:

Initially, Mr. Breen acquired extensive experience as a labor contract administrator and in-house counsel handling labor arbitrations and negotiations, employment issues, pensions, welfare plans, litigation and commercial matters. He tried hundreds of labor arbitrations and served as a spokesperson in numerous labor negotiations. Later, David founded Breen Law Firm LLC representing individuals and businesses in labor and employment law. His practice focus was labor arbitrations and negotiations, employment, unemployment, and employment discrimination claims and litigation and serving as a neutral arbitrator in employment and commercial disputes. He also practices family law and criminal law. In 2003 he ceased practicing labor and employment law and became a neutral arbitrator and mediator of labor, employment, commercial and family disputes. His practice as a labor and employment arbitrator continues to thrive and expand.
